Steak Fry to Fete Babe Ruth Champs

Torrance's State Championship Babe Ruth League All-Stars will be honored by the Torrance Chamber of Commerce at a Father and Son Banquet on Monday, Oct. 26, at Higgin's Brick Yard, at 6:20 p.m. it was announced today by Chairman George Vico of the Chamber's Youth and Sports Committee.

Vico said that in addition to a first-class steak dinner, the boys would be entertained by the personal appearances of at least two of the three heroes from the Los Angeles Dodgers pennant-winning baseball team. Vico, himself an ex major League baseball star, promised that there would be none of the usual "after dinner speeches" but rather the affair would be one to honor the 15 boys, and fathers, who compiled the finest record in Torrance's baseball history.

Members of the team who will be invited to attend include Jim Cairns, Bob Clark,

Local Boxer to Fight Semi-Main At Santa Monica

Roy Smith, promising young Torrance heavyweight who has been steadily ascending the fistic ladder under the guidance of Hawthorne's Gordon Shaw and San Pedro trainer Tivo Lomeli, aims to move a notch closer to the top Monday night.

This is the night the clever and likeable young heavy goes against Bill McMurray in the six-round semi-final on Roy Waller's first fistic presentation at Santa Monica Civic Auditorium, an program which features Golden Boy Art Aragon vs. Romanian welter champion Peter Schmidt in the 10-round main event. A raft of top movie and television stars along with the entire LA Ram football squad and coaches as Waller's personal guests.

THE BOX OFFICE at Santa Monica Civic Auditorium — where each of the 300 seats are individual and rubber lined — has been more than active and indications point to a complete sellout long before the first gong at 8:30 next Monday night.

Roy Smith, whose boxing ability has caused many of the so-called experts to raise an eyebrow in surprise, will be meeting a two-fisted puncher in McMurray and will have to be at his best to walk off with the victory.

RETIRED undefeated fly-weight champion Fidel La Barba, now on a leave of absence from his post with the State Athletic Commission in order to serve as Waller's matchmaker, has observed the Torrance boy in most of his fights and is high in his praise of Smith.

"I've yet to see Roy in a dull fight," La Barba said prior to selecting the Torrance boy for a semi-final spot a fortnight guys call a sleeper wallop, he is a tremendously clever boxer and his punch is getting better and harder with each added bout. This is why I want him on the card, why I've put him against a guy who has possibilities, is an outstanding prospect."
